The Affordable Housing Trust Fund Approved

On May 15th, the Louisville Metro Council in a 25 to 1 vote passed the ordinance creating the Affordable Housing Trust Fund Board of Directors. Councilwoman Mary C. Woolridge (third from the right) worked with members of the Affordable Housing Trust Fund task Force to make the law a reality. Standing to the right of Councilwoman Woolridge is Councilwoman Tina Ward-Pugh. Councilwoman Cheri Bryant Hamilton is standing on the far left. Woolridge guided the legislation through the Health & Human Needs Committee. The Board will now begin to raise the funds needed to help agencies and other with affordable housing.
